INTER-GOVERNMENTAL PAYMENT

RESPONSIBILITY NOT

The reasons for the British Government's decision to default the June 15 instalment on the pany, before Mr. E. W. Hamilton war debt are contained in a statement issued at the Central Magistracy this in London yesterday.

Faced with the alternative of making a payment of £50,-000,000 on June 15 and a further £20,000.000 in December, or defaulting, the Government point out that payment in full would Wong, whose address is given as mean that Great Britain would have to make similar demands to 20. Furthermore, the Government states that it cannot take the Manager of the Nam Tai Hong, a responsibility of reviving the system of payment of inter-Governmental war debts which payment in full would entail.

There is something of the Tango touch about the model we are invited to admire. The long Princess-like upper half is black lace run through with silver threads that make a zig-zag lightning pattern and it fits the figure like glove from square neckline knees. Then comes the "tempestuous petti-goat"-a mass of black net flounces set in sweeping line, smartness to a simple evening rising to instep height in front, gown! falling to train length at the back. And stiffened flounces at that!

There is a tempestuous look, too. about the pale primrose organdi frock designed for a famous American beauty. The skirt is nothing but frills, and the bodice is almost covered with fluttering ruffles after the man ner of the eighteenth century.

You would not call big frilled sleeves of nigger-brown crepe on a pale honey-coloured crepe frock exactly peaceful and ordinary, would you? The honey-coloured frock has one deep flounce of self material on the skirt, and round the close-to-the throat neckline is a gathered frill which develops into la eascading jabot to the waist in front. With those sleeves, and wide sash the ends of which is quite sufficiently arresting to be classed among the "tempestuous"

It must be conceded, of course, that when the combined hands 1.30 p.m.—Rugby Press News, etc. contain 8 honour-tricks and 11 tricks in top cars, the partnership cannot be blamed if it reaches Small Slam.

Generally speaking, such a wealth of honour-tricks, particularly when the combined hands contain two six-card suits, should Concert Orchestra easily develop the twelfth trick somewhere.

However, there is still one vital factor to be considered, and that is ease of communication between the combined hands.

A hand recently played in a Duplicate game in New York City gives point to these observations. The various contracts ranged from six clubs and six diamonds up to, in a few instances, seven no trump; in fact, the hand developed almost as great a variety of bids and final declarations us there

Dear Sire, For some time past I have examined every consignment of the raw material used for the manufacture of your 'ASPRO' Tablets. I have also arranged for this to be the invariable practice in the future.

I have in every case found it to be of the highest possible standard of purity-containing no traces of any impurities whatsoever, I have not, on any single occasion, found the minutest trace of free Salicylic Acid, which is, as you know, effective medicine, to relieve the particular impurity objected to in inferior brands of this important substance.

FIASCORECALLED BY CRITICS

UMIDWAR CAN STAY

Will Colombo win the Derby! Never has there been a hotter favourite for the great classic of the English turf than Lord Glanely's colt.

Winner of nine races including the Two Thousand Guineas and the Craven Stakes, Colombo is looked on by most critics as an absolute certainty, and yet, in some races he has shown definite traces of temperament.

He displayed his masterly ability when winning the Two Thousand Guineas at Newmarket by a length from the French horse Easton; but he also asserted the right which so many distinguished and highly strung performers among men and women claim, to behave in an unconventional or "temperamental" manner.

He made a scene. He was led from his stable to the racecourse with a lad on his back. As soon as he entered the paddock he tried to unseat his rider and to break away from the attendant who held the leading

CONDITIONS GOVERNING

(Continued from Page 4) It was Disraeli who coined the expression, "Blue Riband of the Turf." When accused by Lord George Bentinck of not knowing what the Derby was, he retorted: "Indeed, but I do. It is the blue riband of the Turf;" and that apt description of the race has clung to it ever since. Perhaps no Derby has been so vice, on the Royal Hong Kong Yacht purely imaginary. The victory of Hermit was a surprise, but not on form, for his doings as a two-yearold caused him to be one of the League. winter favourites. Hermit broke a J. London, To-day. who are the closest challengers for title received their first check in the County Cricket Championship when they were held, to a draw at Edgbaston yesterday. Warwick, playing without their eaptain, R. E. S. Wyatt, who was taking part in the Test Trial, made a great stand in the second innings, Norman Kilner, brother of the late Roy Kilner, contributing) 153 to their score of 313 for 2.

The Sussex veterans enjoyed a good match, Tommy Cook scoring 719, and Wensley, the all-rounder, adding 103.

Recording their first points in the County Championship this year Northants only secured a lead of 18 runs over Worcestershire.

Timms, who, with his captain, Vallance Jupp, has been the mainstay of the Northants team for many seasons, was responsible for 213 out of 388 in the first innings.

Howarth, the new Worcestershire bowler, proved his worth by securing 5 wickets for 66 in the second innings.

Gibbons, of Worcester, scored his third century of the season, adding 129 to the first innings score of 363, and Martin, who played some very fine innings last, year, fulfilled expectations with a score of 150.

Now it has fallen. But the simple country people have had a terrible fright.

For the rain came down red—like drops of blood-and the villagers imagined that some awful plague was upon them.

Reassurance, however, came from the local pundit—the village schoolmaster. He collected some of the red rain, analysed it, and explained that the colour was due to "ferruginous and volcanic dusts raised by the wind and absorbed by the falling rain."-Reuter.

'Capitalistic Dragon' in Gotham's May Day Parade

Reminiscent of the moving forest in Macbeth is this sea of placards carried by marchers in the May Day parade of Communists at New York. The big feature of the procession was the block-long dragon, representing the demon "Capitalism", that was borne by the paraders ' to their traditional stamping ground in Union Square.

Temperature & Sunshine Below Normal.

RAINFALL DECREASE

The mean temperature for May was F.76.7 degrees, which is .04 degrees below normal. The first three days of the month were unusually cold, owing to the prevalence of easterly winds; the minimum temperature of 65.9 degrees reached on May 1 was the lowest temperature

Cloudiness during the month was slightly greater than the normal, and sunshine slightly less, the total duration of sunshine being 34 hours, against the normal of 39 hours.

Heavy rainfall, accompanied by thunder, was experienced on night of May 24 and 25, when 5.49 inches of rain fell. The total rainfall for the month, however, only amounted to 8.73 inches, the normal being 11.50 inches. The total rainfall recorded in 1934, up to May 131, was 14.90 inches, against an average of 22.90 inches.

LOCAL'RAINFALL

The heavy thunderstorm which swept the Colony last night produced 0.91 inches of rain, bringing the total for the year to 18.25 inches, as against a normal average of 25.53 inches.
